

Day 19 - Random Act of Christmas Kindness - Groceries

Day 19 takes me back to the grocery store. My "Random Act of Kindness" was giving out another grocery gift certificate. The first grocery gift certificate had me giving the card to the cashier, who then in turn gave it to an unsuspecting customer. Today, instead of giving it to the cashier, I decided to tape it to the grocery shopping cart. I taped it to the part where you would sit a young child near the front of the cart. After the card was taped, I returned the cart to the cart corral area. Unfortunately, I forgot to take a picture! Ugh!

Picture or not, I am sure the recipient is enjoying a smaller grocery bill today!
