

Day 22 - Random Act of Christmas Kindness - Restaurant Meal

My "Random Act of Christmas Kindness" on Day 22 involved picking up the tab of another restaurant patron. Tonight my daughter and I were dining when we randomly chose another couple's meal tab to pay. When it came to paying their bill, I was not expecting a meal that was split between the two of them. So it was much less than I expected!

We did hear they were very surprised when they received my "RACK" card instead of the bill. I love putting smiles on people's faces!
