

Day 24 - Random Act of Christmas Kindness - Mailman

Day 24 of the "Random Act of Christmas Kindness" is all about people who provide us service that we sometimes take for granted. Today I put together a coffee mug with Christmas goodies and put it in my mailbox before the mail arrived on Christmas Eve.

I will say I have never done this before so I am pretty sure our mailman was surprised!

Just curious, what have you done lately for a random act of Christmas kindness?
