

Day 3 - Random Acts of Christmas Kindness - The Ringer

Day 3 was a very busy day of meetings for me. So my Random Acts of Christmas Kindness was rewarding the Salvation Army bell ringer for her time. The Salvation Army ringers are usually located in the entry way of our local grocery stores. I needed to pick up a few food items and sometimes you just automatically walk by them. Not today.

And the reward? A gift card at Caribou.

Salvation Army is a Godsend for many needy families. And, I for one, am appreciative of what they do. Thank you Bell Ringers! Be sure to pay it forward by thanking your Salvation Army volunteers for what they do!
