

MFL Giveaway - Pigs, The Inventor of Bacon T-Shirt and Seasoning

Pigs, the Inventors of Bacon

Minnesota Farm Living is celebrating the new blog layout/design! And not only that, it's midsummer and it's just a good time to have a giveaway. From now until the end of Monday, July 27, 2015 you have a chance to win either a "Pigs, the Inventor of Bacon" t-shirt (size large only) or "Martin County Magic Seasoning" a great rub for grilling pork.

So how do you win?

It's rather simple. Go to my blog home page - www.mnfarmliving.com and sign up for email notifications of my blog. You will see on the right hand of the home page a place to enter your email address for a subscription. Just remember to verify/activate your email address! The second way for a chance to win is follow me on instagram at instagram.com/mnfarmliving. That's it! There will be a random drawing from those who participate. Good Luck!
